THE STAND UP SOMMELIER

Join TV personality, award-winning sommelier and comedian Laurie Forster at Caffé Gelato on June 20th for an edgy, off-beat hilarious show where wine meets punchline. Using her down to earth approach to “wine education,” Forster peels back the labels of a few of her favorite summer wines from around the world while she exposes some the deep secrets of the wine industry and why she thinks it’s so damn funny!

Chef Jeovanny will perfectly pair Laurie's wines with a delectable 4-course dinner. During the evening, Forster will leave no stone unturned when it comes to talking about wine and why we love it. Maybe you love the full body of a Malbec or the crisp acidity of a Sauvignon Blanc. Who knows? Who cares? But by the end of this dinner three things are certain: You are confident about what you like, exhausted from laughing and completely satisfied.
